

Pyjama and Story Day

28
March

We are so excited about our pyjama day initiative this year. Children can come to school wearing pyjamas.

We will also inspire a love for books and stories on this day. We would appreciate a donation of an age appropriate book for our school library.

Coffee will be on sale for parents before school and an opportunity to meet Mr Marsh.